Campus Governance

Purpose:

The interests of students, faculty, and staff are represented by three separate and equally important bodies:
- Associated Students of the University of Hawai‘i – Hawai‘i Community College
- Academic Senate
- College Council

In order to ensure the integrity and effectiveness of the College’s governance and decision-making processes, roles of governance groups, such as College Council and Academic Senate, will be regularly evaluated and results communicated with college constituent groups.

Academic Senate

The Academic Senate of Hawai‘i Community College convenes as an organization to maintain and strengthen academic decision-making at the College and systemwide levels. Senate responsibilities include but are not limited to the development, modification, initiation, and review of academic policies and issues in consultation with the Chancellor and others as needed. Membership consists of all BOR-appointed instructional and non-instructional faculty covered by Collective Bargaining Unit 7 who have their primary assignment with HawCC. Members of the Academic Senate are referred to as Senators. All Senators have the rights of voice and vote.

Ex-officio members and representatives must be full-time administrators, BOR-appointed faculty, or APT and clerical regular hires.
