College Council Wrap Up for December 7, 2018

Please share the following items with your constituents. Contact Carrie Mospens (mospens@hawaii.edu) with any questions or concerns.

1. The College Council voted in favor of recommending that the restructure proposal move forward.
2. Merve Unumatz is a Fulbright Scholar from Turkey who is serving as Scholar in Residence at Hawai'i Community College for the 18-19 academic year. She will be teaching Turkish Culture and Language in the Spring 2019 semester on MW from 2-3:15pm; those interested are welcome to sit in. Tuition-waivers have been approved for kupuna who wish to audit course.
3. VCAS Kaleiwahea has resurrected the Technology Advisory Committee (TAC). Currently, the committee is seeking two representatives, one from student services and one from faculty. TAC looks at policies/procedures related to technology (ie. Cybersecurity, equipment replacements plans, vidcon, etc.). Contact VCAS Kaleiwahea at kjakalei@hawaii.edu for more information.
4. Chancellor Solemsaas distributed a flyer promoting next year's College direction: Kupukupu. This campaign highlights the College's contributions to helping build a strong and resilient community and celebrates HawCC's role in supporting strong communities. This campaign will be used in public relations, College Experience Day, our end-of-year celebration, the Scholarship Thank You Breakfast, and at commencement. Nominations for alumni who helped respond to the effects of the Kilauea eruption in Puna are due December 31, 2018. Ho'olulu Council was consulted on the theme, which is based on the significance of the kupukupu fern.
5. Mary Washington, from Ohio, is joining KAI (Kauhale Analytics and Intelligence) as our new Institutional Analyst.

6. The draft minutes of this meeting are available for review.

7. Note that our next College Council meeting is scheduled for January 11, 2019 from 2:00p – 4:00p.
