

Hawai'i-CC

Hawai'i, Asian and Pacific Issues (HAP) Committee Faculty Senate Report for April 2019

HAP Committee Members (AY18-19):

No'el K. Tagab-Cruz (Chair)
Drew Kapp (Geography)
Jeanne Batallones (GSSS)
Tagi Qolouvaki (English)
Ākeamakamae Kiyuna (Humanities)

HAP Meetings were held on the following dates, since Jan 17, 2019:
Feb 12, Mar 12, Apr 2, Apr 18.

The following four courses were approved by Academic Senate on 1/25/19:

- ENG 102 – College Reading Skills (Instructor Designation: Vivian Chin)
- ENG 105 – Reading Film (Instructor Designation: Kristine Kotecki)
- ENG 255 - Short Story & Novel (Instructor Designation: Tagi Qolouvaki)
- HWST 107 – Hawai'i: Center of the Pacific (Course Designation)

During this period the HAP Committee:

- Created a survey administered to those who submitted a HAP proposal for Fall 2019, to solicit their feedback on the application process;
- Reviewed survey responses, and incorporated feedback, as well as Committee member recommendations, into the future application process;
- Submitted a faculty memo to inform the College of the new HAP requirement effective Fall 2019;
- Created an FAQ sheet to clarify HAP definitions, hallmarks and other questions;
- Created a timeline to accept new HAP-designation proposals for Spring 2020 and will convey those details to the College by the end of April.

Mahalo. Submitted by Drew Kapp, 4/21/19