Hō'ōia 'Āina - Land Acknowledgement

Hawai'i Community College with profound reflection offer this Hō'ōia 'Āina, Land Acknowledgement.

Hawai'i is an indigenous space whose original people are today identified as Native Hawaiians. Our Kauhale aligns with the University of Hawai'i System's commitment to fostering the wellbeing of indigenous communities through academic processes put into effect with the ten-campus, system-wide transformation called Hawai'i Papa O Ke Ao.

With much aloha, Hawai'i Community College Kauhale welcomes you to the moku of Hawai'i, in this land division we call Waiākea, in the district of Hilo Hanakahi (Manono campus); in the moku of Kona 'Ākau with the Pāalamanui campus; and in Haina in the moku of Hāmākua district with the Kō Education Center.

This land acknowledgement welcomes everyone who gathers here.

We are in Hawai'i. 'Ano'ai.
